

COMPLEX ALGEBRAIC GEOMETRY

CHRISTIAN PAULY

In this course we present from a modern point of view the basic theory of algebraic varieties over the complex numbers. We introduce the necessary results from commutative algebra in order to define notions like affine varieties, dimensions, smoothness. A large part of the course will deal with sheaves and their cohomology. At the end we will discuss the case of algebraic curves to illustrate the theory.